Brenda,

I'm sure glad we're seniors now, aren't you?

You were sure fun to sit by in law. I hope we're in more classes togethr next year.

Keep your big smile & swell personality & you'll go far! Stay sweet!

"65" A friend always,

Sally Obear

Brenda,
Here's to a real sweet gal. Too bad we didn't have more classes together but home room with Mr. De Sutter was interesting enough! Good luck and may God bless you.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

WILLIAM S. GUSSNER is the administrator of the Jamestown Public Schools. He was the Senior High School Principal for two years; and he also taught natural science and coached for eight years prior to being named superintendent.

This past year he has been especially concerned with reorganization of the school district, which now includes a large rural area.

CO-ORDINATOR

ALBERT GULLIKSON, as Co-ordinator of Instruction, works with the teachers in special instruction programs, aids in curricular studies, orientates new teachers, and helps in the selection of new texts.

Mr. Gullikson is, also, in charge of the school book store, which this year, was moved to new quarters in the north wing of the Senior High School.

SENIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL

In his third year as principal, VIRGIL BUCHHOLTZ, has been confronted with various duties and responsibilities. His long list of responsibilities includes keeping records, coordinating the extra-curricular program, and holding staff and student meetings.

The senior high school enrollment this year is approximately 770. There are 210 seniors, 260 juniors, and 300 sophomores. The large sophomore class is due to the transfer from St. John's Academy.

JUNIOR HIGH PRINCIPAL

ROBERT MOFFITT, supervises students in grades seven, eight, and nine. His biggest responsibility during the school year is that of helping the freshmen students choose the course of study which they will follow throughout high school.

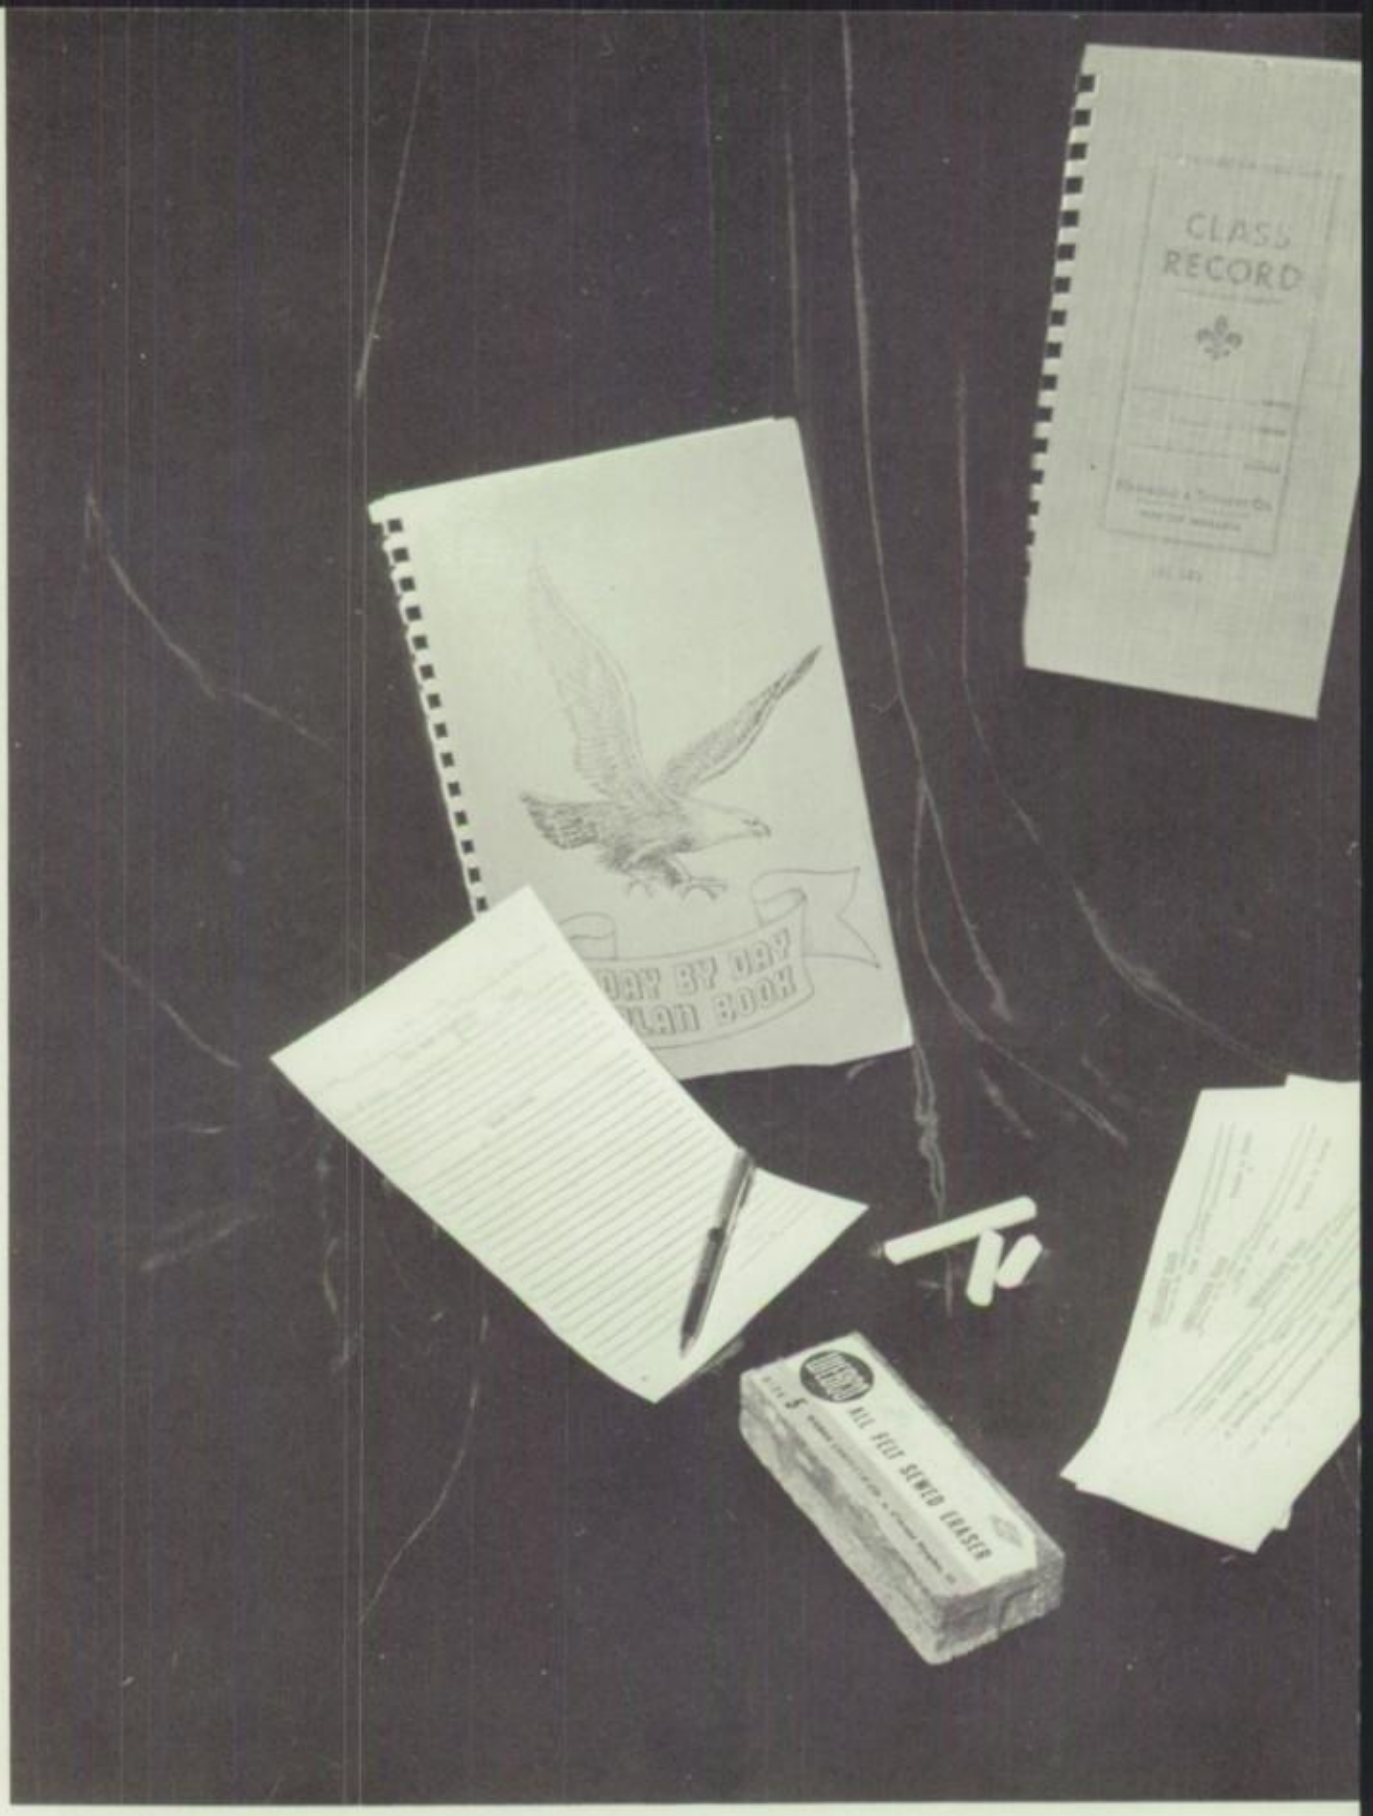
A REORGANIZED DISTRICT

MEANS A NEW SCHOOL BOARD

BACK ROW: Earl Amundson; third from left, Dr. T. E. Pederson; fifth from left, W. S. Gussner, Supt.; unidentified men were offering bids for a new school bus. SEATED: Rev. James Keller; Mrs. Leona Daede; Mrs. Mazie Roeszler; H. A. Fridlund, Vice-President; R. O. Melland, President; Miss Bertha Ebel, Clerk; Mrs. Lyle Newberry; and Robert H. Miller.

SECRETARIES: Sarah Geroux, Superintendent's office; Jean Peterson, Library; Linda Hust, Sr. High Prin.; Dianne Derheim, Jr. High Prin., and Co-ordinator.

Miss Bertha Ebel, Secretary to the Superintendent.



ACADEMICS

Grüsz Gott!

Bonjour!

Salve!

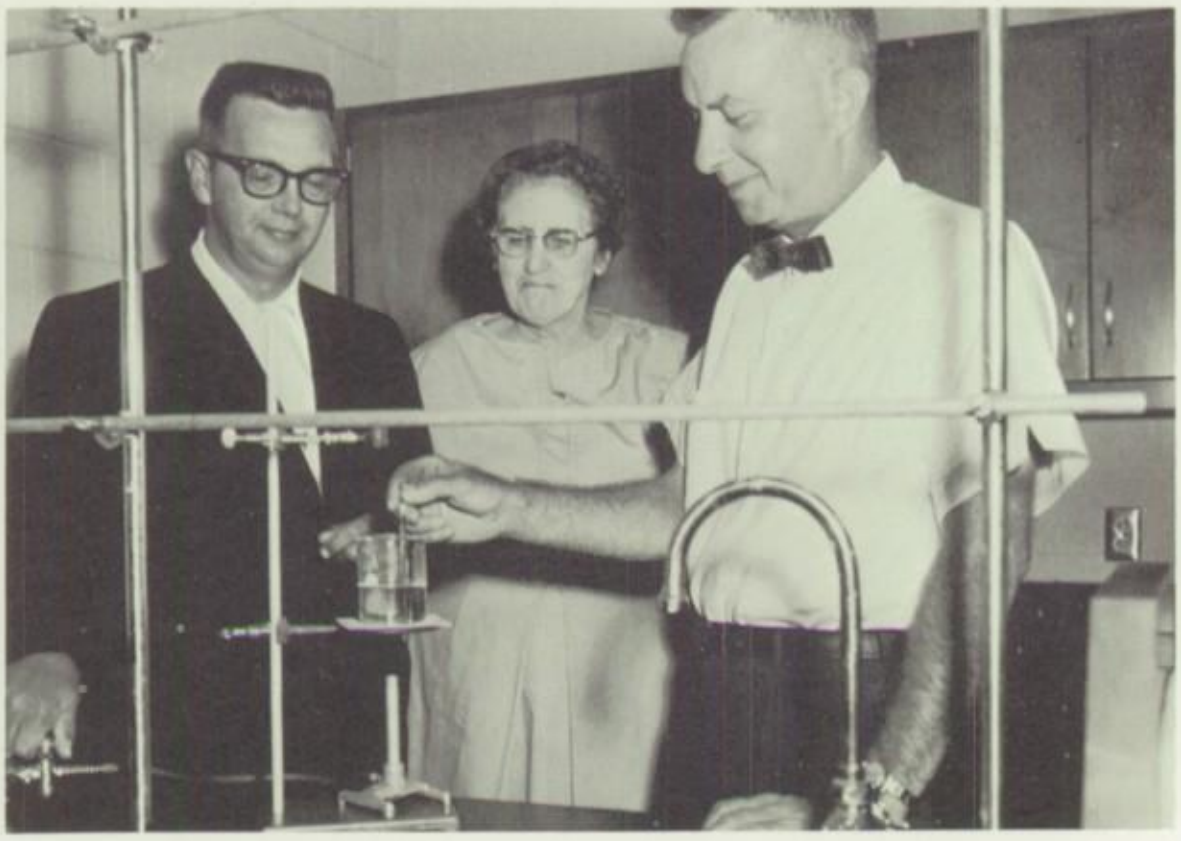
Mrs. Elfriede Anderson and Mrs. Frances Nichols

Hot wires!!

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

High school students have a choice of three foreign languages. They include three years of German, taught by Mrs. Elfriede Anderson; two years of French, taught by Mrs. Frances Nichols; and two years of Latin; taught by Mrs. Nichols, and William Fox.

Ooh! Those French jokes!



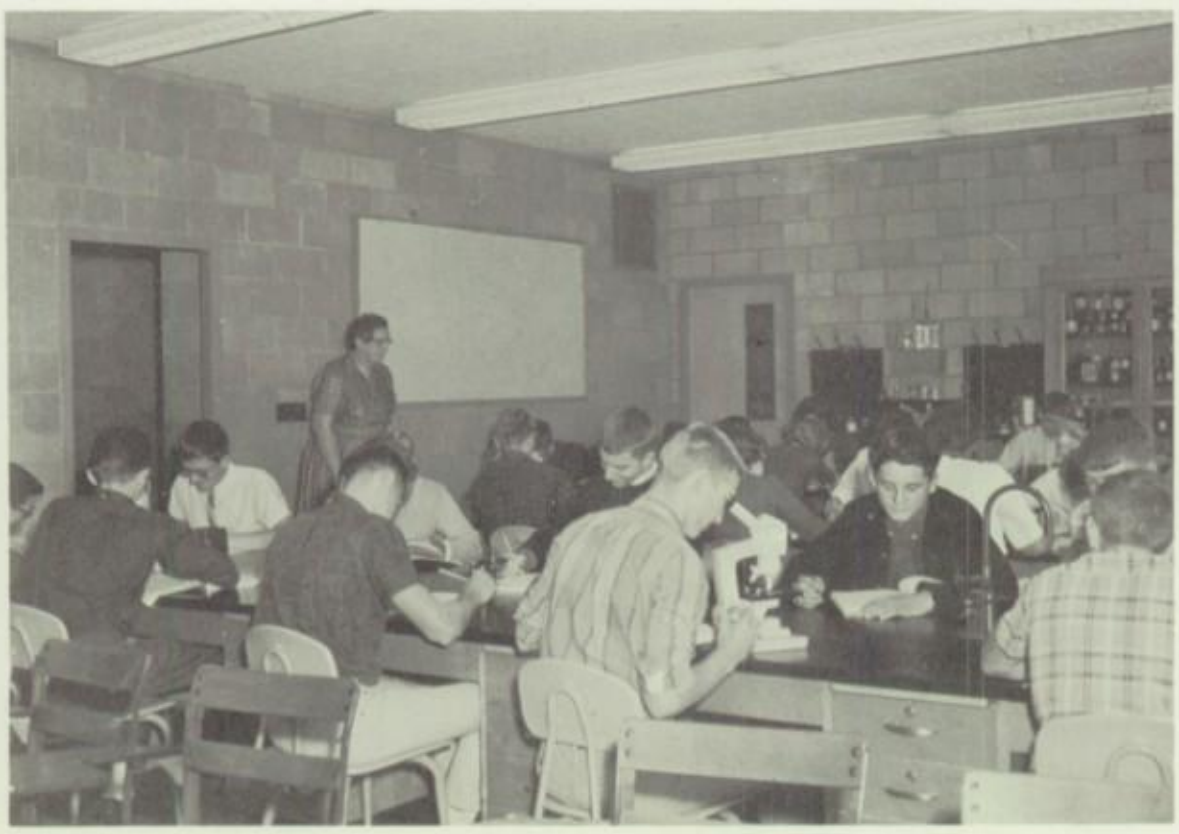
Plumbing trouble?

Gordon Christensen, Cecilia Mohs, George Barron

SCIENCE

Observing, generalizing, theorizing, and testing--many of you probably recognize these terms as being the four distinct phases in the application of scientific methods. Teaching the fundamentals of these phases are: Gordon Christensen and Cecilia Mohs in biology; and George Barron, in chemistry and physics.

Future Einsteins?



Lookin' for somethin'

Watch those pinkies!

Orville LeMay, John Thurn, Helmut Albrecht

Mr. Thurn shows them how.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The origin of all those beautiful tables, lamps, and other items of furniture which are proudly displayed at the annual spring PTA meeting is the industrial arts department.

There are three different sections in this department. They are trade education under the direction of Orville LeMay; shop taught by John Thurn; and mechanical drawing taught by Helmut Albrecht.

Question, Gene?

Helen Hoermann, Carl Ekstrom

Instructors take time for a smile.

AGRICULTURE

Miss Hoermann, teaching home economics, instructs the girls in cooking, sewing, and home management.

Mr. Ekstrom has the job of preparing the boys for future careers in modern farming.

Learning the techniques.

Future Mrs. Americas

Is this automation?

Roger Aune, Patrick DeSutter, Delbert Boss, Harriet Shurr

COMMERCIAL

Students preparing to enter the business world can take Shorthand II, Sec. Practice, Machines, Clerical Practice and Dist. Ed. II from Miss Shurr; typing from Mr. Boss; Shorthand I, Dist. Ed. I, and typing from Mr. Aune; and Bookkeeping I and II, and Business Math. from Mr. DeSutter.

Future Executives.

Keep those feet flat!

Flex 'em!

Delores Paulson, Robert Brookshire, Ernest Gates

Not too far, Scott!

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

For two hours each week the girls don blue gym suits. They keep supple with calisthenics, basketball, softball, volleyball, and badminton. They also take lessons in posture.

The boys limber up in preparation for physical fitness tests.

The Futter-Bingers!

English teachers pose for the camera

Gordon Olson, Milton Sherburne, Ralph Kraft, Marjory Nelson, Mary Anderson, Kathleen Wild

"I" before "E" except after "C"

ENGLISH

The English language is the foundation for our modern education. Realizing this, Jamestown High School offers a full course in both grammar and literature.

Helping the students find the many aspects of this subject are Marjorie Nelson, Mary Anderson, Kathleen Wild, Gordon Olson, Milton Sherburne, and Ralph Kraft.

Last-minute book reviews

Catching up on World Events

Robert Heil, Doris Heil, Meier Snell, Helen Stensland, Ronald Luttschwager, William Krivabok

SOCIAL

STUDIES

Helping us make a careful and critical analysis of the problems of both the past and the present are Miss Stensland, and Mr. Snell in United States History; Miss Heil, Mr. Heil, and Mr. Luttschwager, in World History; and Mr. Krivabok, and Mr. Luttschwager, in Modern Problems.

Flunked another one?

Oh! Those terms!!

Where's Euclid?

Robert Loe, Gertrude Mikkelson, Edward Banttari

Where the boys are.

MATHEMATICS

Providing students with a mathematical background necessary for solving unknowns and proving triangles congruent are Mr. Loe, geometry; Miss Mikkelson, Algebra II and Math IV; Mr. Bantarri and Miss Hansen, Algebra I.

Some students were in the School Mathematics Study Groups using experimental mathematics material.

MUSIC

Through the combined efforts of Karl Ulmer, Band; Donald Streuber, Orchestra; and James Swanson, Chorus; the Jamestown High School Music Department has gained recognition for its wonderful presentations.

New this year was a boys' chorus and a sophomore chorus.

Name that tune!

Donald Streuber, James Swanson, Karl Ulmer

Richard Mawby

GUIDANCE

Having a problem? Why not see one of the counselors? Mr. Mawby is the school guidance counselor. If you need information on a college or career, he is always ready to offer suggestions.

Miss Nelson and Miss Heil are always willing to help the girls with special problems.

LIBRARY

Since it was first organized in the fall of 1955, the library, under the direction of Iona DeSchneau, has presented the students an abundant supply of reading material. This year the library was extended to the rear of the big study hall.

Miss DeSchneau is always willing to help the students with any problem they may have.

Iona DeSchneau

Donald Bean

SPEECH THERAPY

Donald Bean is the speech therapist. He came to Jamestown in the middle of last year. He is busy helping students improve their speech.

J-DAY

J-Day festivities commenced at 3:00 PM with the procession of the Queen and her attendants and their escorts. Zona Shipley was crowned J-Day Queen for the class of 1964 by Mr. Gussner. The senior attendants were Mary Jane Ulrickson, and Lois Berge escorted by Bob Nelson and Terry Ingstad. Representing the junior class was Joan Berge escorted by Cliff Powers, while Marney Game escorted by David Grande represented the sophomore class. Ray Buchli escorted the Queen. Red roses and a loving cup were presented to Queen Zona by the senior class. Cheers, numbers by the band and mixed chorus, and a skit by the seniors completed the program.

The parade, beginning at 6:30 PM, progressed to Washington Field where the Blue Jays played Dickinson. A dance completed the evening.

FOREIGN STUDENT

Jorge at home with Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Bob, Tom, and George.

Our foreign student, Jorge Rey from Buenos Aires, Argentina, arrived here the twenty-fifth of August after flying from Argentina to Miami where he received a three-day indoctrination program. After Miami, it was off to Chicago to Fargo and on to his new home with the Davidson family here in Jamestown.

Besides his mother and father, Jorge has one brother at home.

Jorge leaves Jamestown in June after which he will take a tour of the United States and then return to Argentina.

PROM 1963

Entering Oriental Gardens

Dave Rembolt, Junior Class President, and Barbara McFadden led the procession on April 20, for the beginning of the 1963 Junior-Senior Prom.

From 9:00 P.M. until midnight the couples danced amid the "Oriental Gardens" to the music of Art Holland and his Orchestra. Included in the decorations were a rock garden and fountain.

Punch was served by the Sophomore girls which is traditional.

As the last strains of music floated through the air, everyone concluded that it had been a most enjoyable evening--one to be long remembered.

What's the joke?

Behind the Scenes

GRADUATION

Commencement 1963

As Dave Rembolt and Marcie DeGroot led the way down the aisle the school year came to an end for the class of 1963. The many years of hard work really paid off for Faye Clausen, Janet Holaday, and Carol Jensen, who headed the class of 1963. Jamestown College scholarships were awarded to Carol Jensen and Kathy Sahr. Jerry Schmidt, Gerald Steffans, and John Kraft were the recipients of the W.B.S. Trimble Trust Fund. Dr. John A. Fisher, President of Jamestown College, spoke on the "Responsibilities of the Educated." The diplomas were presented by H. A. Fridlund, Vice-Chairman of the Board of Education. The Senior members of the Concert Choir sang "Halls of Ivy." The seniors marched in and out to "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the High School Orchestra.

The Blue Jay News editor, Marcellene DeGroot, and her staff were plagued with the same enjoyable, but tedious job common to all experienced newspaper people. Deadlines, stories, advertising, layouts, galley sheets, and proofreading were just some of their tasks. But, when the job was finished, the paper off the press and distributed to the student body, the staff had that feeling of satisfaction. The job was done and once again the students had the latest news about J.H.S.

ZEE-KA-TOW

"Have you noticed any changes in the Ze-Ka-Tow? This year's annual staff has put many long and tedious hours into its making.

Despite the heckling of many high school students, the annual staff managed to keep its theme a deep dark secret! Not until the eve of the Senior Class Banquet did the students find out what was hidden behind its blue and white cover. Intent on putting out "the best yearbook ever," the annual staff met every Tuesday night at 4:00, under the supervision of Mr. Heil and Mr. Kraft.

CONCERT CHOIR

Memories are made of this--"stop all that talking, I'm rehearsing another section." "What's the matter in the Tenor Section?" "No piano--ooooh!"

These are a few of the happy memories of the fifty-five members of the 1964 Concert Choir. Under the direction of Mr. James Swanson, they participated in the assembly program at Christmas time, made tape recordings for the radio, and went to the choir festival in Valley City. The officers this year were President, Jerry Stoddart; Secretary, Barbara McFadden; and Treasurer, Bonnie Jensvold. The student directors were Karen Holritz and Carol Lucy. Karen Holritz and Marilyn Koepplin were accompanists. Librarians were Helen Fields and Phyllis Weatherly.

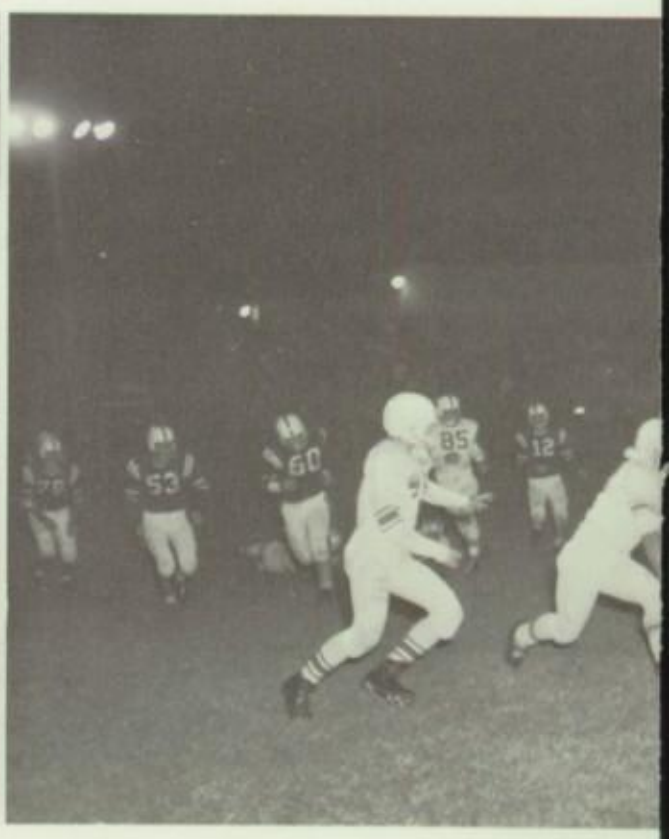
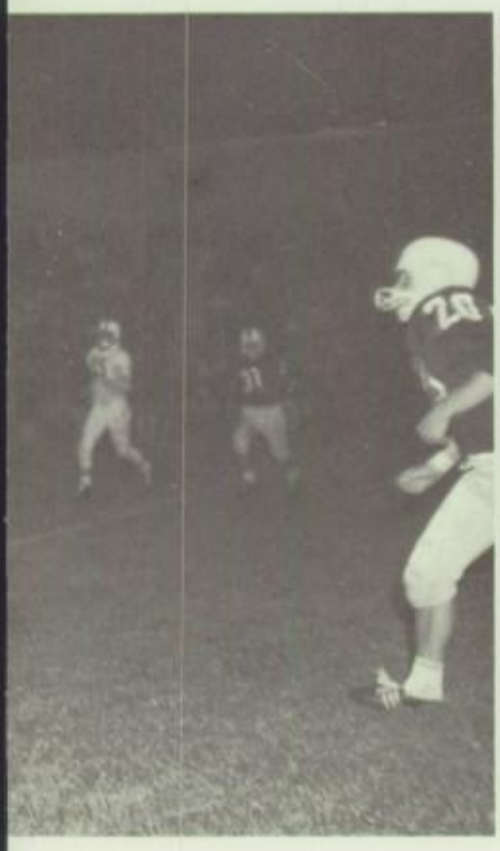
FOOTBALL

The Blue Jay football team of 1963 led by tri-captains, Robert Nelson, Raymond Buchli, and Terry Ingstad, compiled a season of seven losses and one tie with Dickinson. Through the efforts of head coach Ernie Gates and assistant coaches Gordon Riffe, Wes Sharbano and the scouting efforts of Del Boss, the team marked down this season as "Experience". The Blue Jays can be called a "Sports Oddity" because we out first downed all but two teams that we played. The team's leading scorer was Robert Docktor, and Mel Wahl was given the title of "Most Valuable Player", "Most Conscientious Player", and he also had the most defensive points.





catch, Gary!

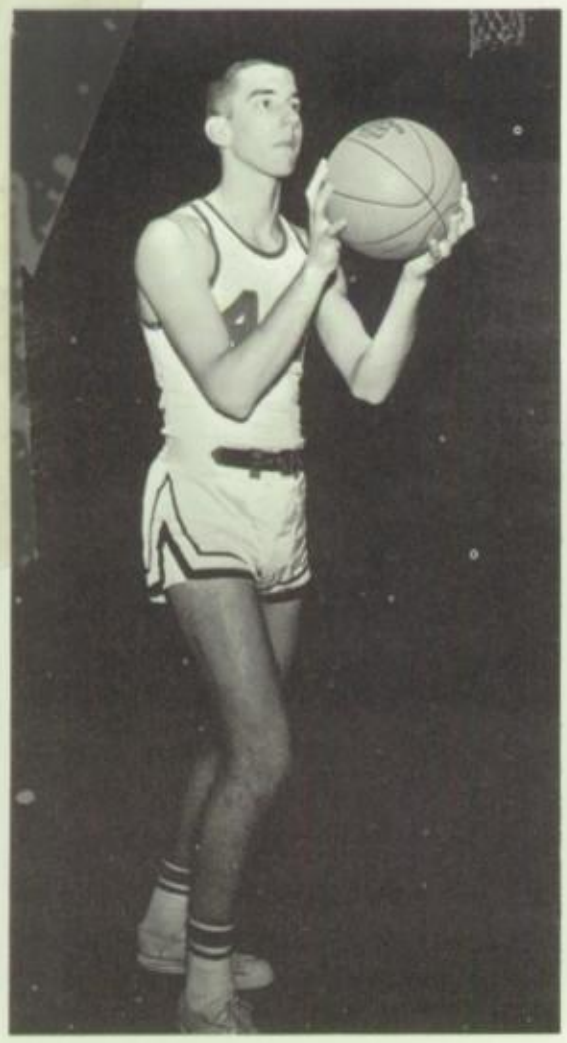
BASKETBALL

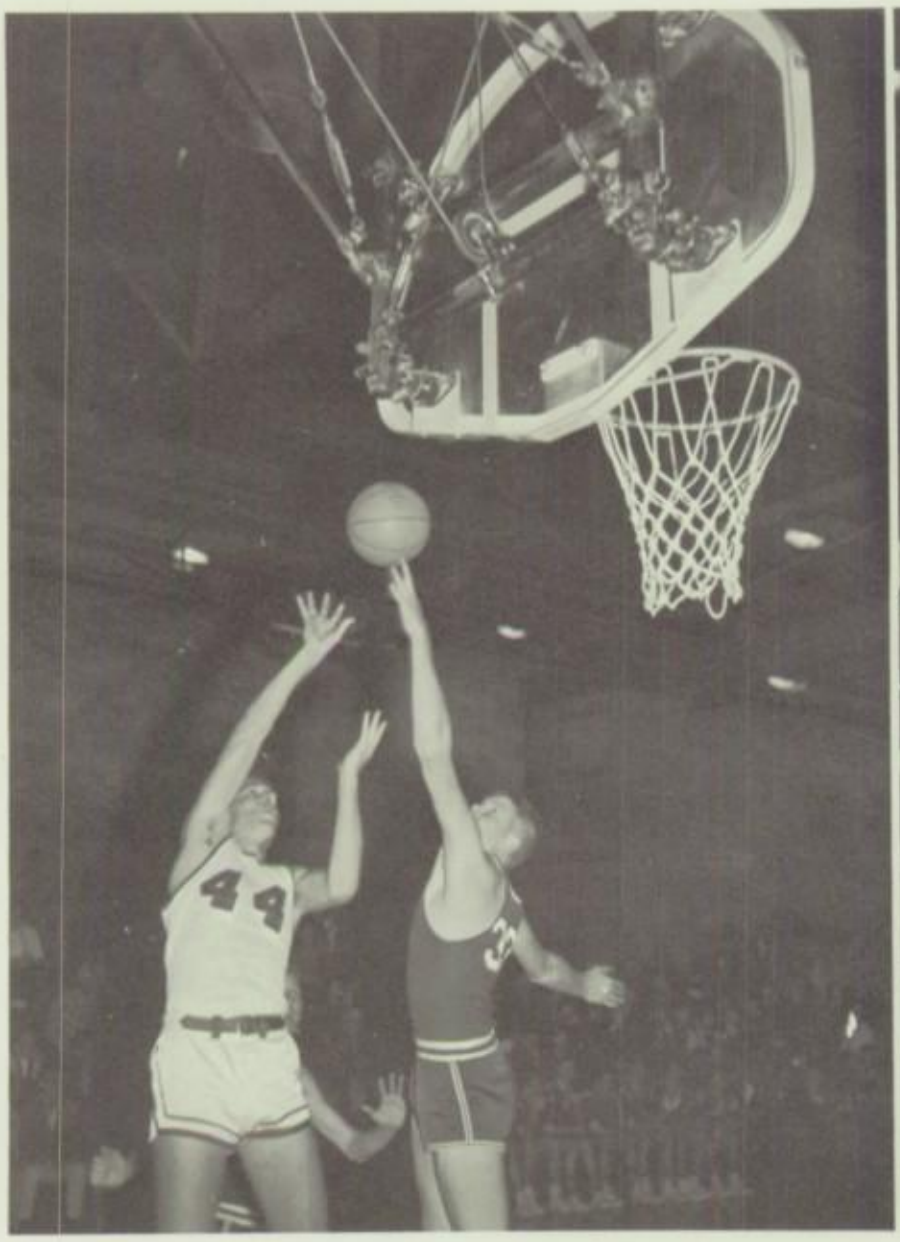


Jim Ramstad, Captain

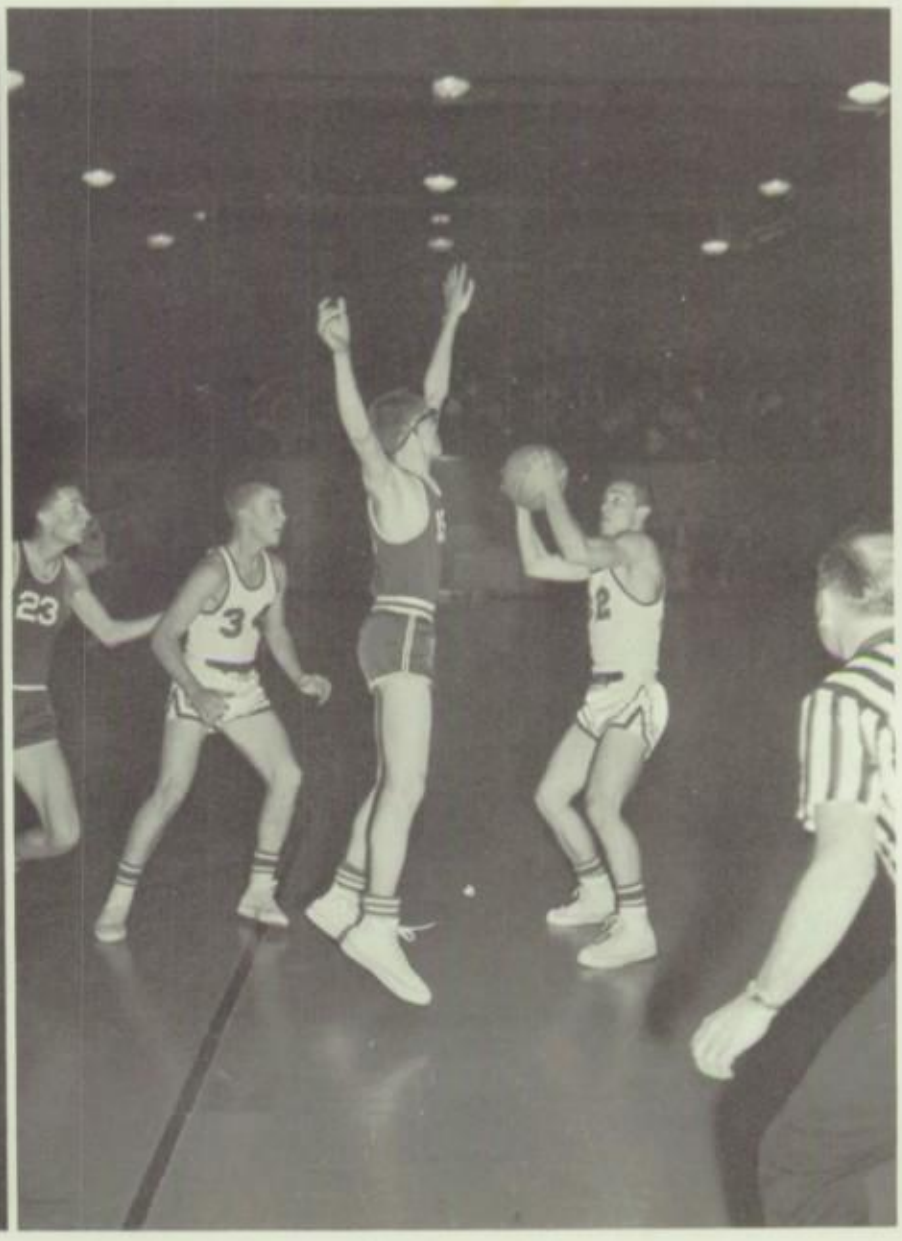
This year the Jays had a new coach, Robert Brookshire.

After many years in the Class A Western Division, Jamestown was placed in the Class A Southeastern Region because of the addition of schools classified Class A. The Southeastern Regional Tournament was held at Valley City, March 4, 5, 6, and 7. The Jays played Wahpeton and lost. The State Tournament was held in Grand Forks March 12, 13, 14.

The athletic banquet was held in April. The following received recognition: Mike Beyer, Top Defensive Player; Bob Buchholtz, Most Valuable Player; Dan Kinne, Most Improved; Bob Buchholtz, Top Scorer (326 pts.), Top Free Throw Percentage (72%), and Top Rebounder (123); Mike Beyer and Bob Buchholtz, Top Field Goal Percentage (37%). The newly elected captains for the 1964-65 season were announced. They are Bob Buchholtz and Mike Beyer.



Tip it to a Jamestown guy!



Hold that ball, Jays!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

And now, ZEE-KA-TOW for 1964 ends. It has been a rewarding year, one that has produced many wonderful memories.

I would like to extend my thanks to all who have helped make this annual possible.

Especially to my staff, Mr. Heil, and Mr. Kraft, who have worked so very faithfully and sincerely to make this annual a special one. Also a special thanks to Denis Norton for his excellent art work, which certainly added to our annual.

To King's Studio and Molli Anderson for their cooperation and especially to Marty Hoag and John Schmidt, our student photographers, for their time and effort.

To the administration and the faculty for their help and information, and to the American Yearbook Company for publishing our annual.

And of course to you, the student body who I certainly hope will enjoy the 1964 ZEE-KA-TOW, as much as we enjoy producing it for you.

My sincere appreciation to you all.

Jill Enzminger, Editor

Brenda:

Heres to the wonderfulest girl I have ever met and ever hope to meet. Remember out the Dam and at the water tower, and down the park, and all the places were been together. Ill never forget these places or when we first met, man my life started when I met you at Peterson party. and what about all our fun times together, we always have fun just the two of us, we always find some fun don't we. And what about out to the dam all the fun and games there, Brenda you have made my life, If I lost you now I would die. Brenda I love you, and I hope all our plans and our dreams come true. Our 5 kids, our house, and most of all being together always, and living happiness together.

You know I have been a fool in the past, but its going to change. Brenda, I sorry for always hurting you and always treating you so mean. Im not going to say anything anymore and we won't argue. Ok. You can do what you want, buy what you want, and wear what you want, and I'll never say anything again.

Lots of luck next year in school, and good luck always, and in what ever you do. always remember Brenda no matter what happen next year, I'll always love you, and always be waiting for you if anything happen.

"God Bless and Keep you Always"

"My love always"
Bill

Brenda,

I'm sure glad you have alot of room, because I could write a book!

We've had alot of fun these past years haven't we? Like at Gerri's Prom party? Remember the night we took Gerri's car and went down the wrong side of the Highway? That was really fun ha? The other night at the Drive-In, and all the many other times we've doubled. I'm sure I'll never forget them, and all the fun we've had!

We never did get to take our trip to Minneapolis did we?

Brenda, I think you're a real sweet kyd with a great personality. Don't ever change and you'll go far in life. I think the world of you, I really do — and hope that our friendship will never end.

Take it easy on Bill now! You make such a sweet pair — I wish you all the luck in the world in everything you do!

P.S. I've got my fingers crossed for Thursday. Ha!

A Friend always,
Jeannine
"65"

Brenda,
It's been a pleasure having you in my Short-hand class. Thanks for all the pine you lent me. Lots of luck in the future

Bill.

Brenda
As you can see by my writing I'm kinda anxious to get out of here. Now that we're seniors I don't feel any different but I know the end is closer and that's a good deal. Best of luck in the future and especially with Bill.

Brenda,
Here's to a swell kyd. Stay that way. Don't worry. Don't be anxious to get out of here. Now that we're seniors I don't feel any different but I know the end is closer and that's a good deal. Best of luck in the future and especially with Bill.

Brenda,

You're a real sweet and cute kyd so don't ever change. I sure hope we get in alot of classes together again next year.

Lotza luck in the future and in all you do and take it easy on Bill.

Brenda,
It's great to be done with school isn't it? I'm planning to have lots of fun this summer, as I'm sure you are too. You are a great girl and I'm sure to her boyfriend. Bill make a very nice couple, who seem to be very much in LOVE.
Good luck
Sandy

Hi Kyel,
Best of luck to you in the future - Stay just as sweet and nice as you are and you will go far. Lotza luck with Bill, even though you don't need it.
Shirley Ballenger

Brenda,
I'm really glad I got to know you better this year. I think you are a real nice person and a lot of fun. I sure hope we get some classes together next year.
Best of luck in the future and May God Bless you Always
